Yellow warning
Wind

Between 07:00 Wed 2 Nov 2022 and
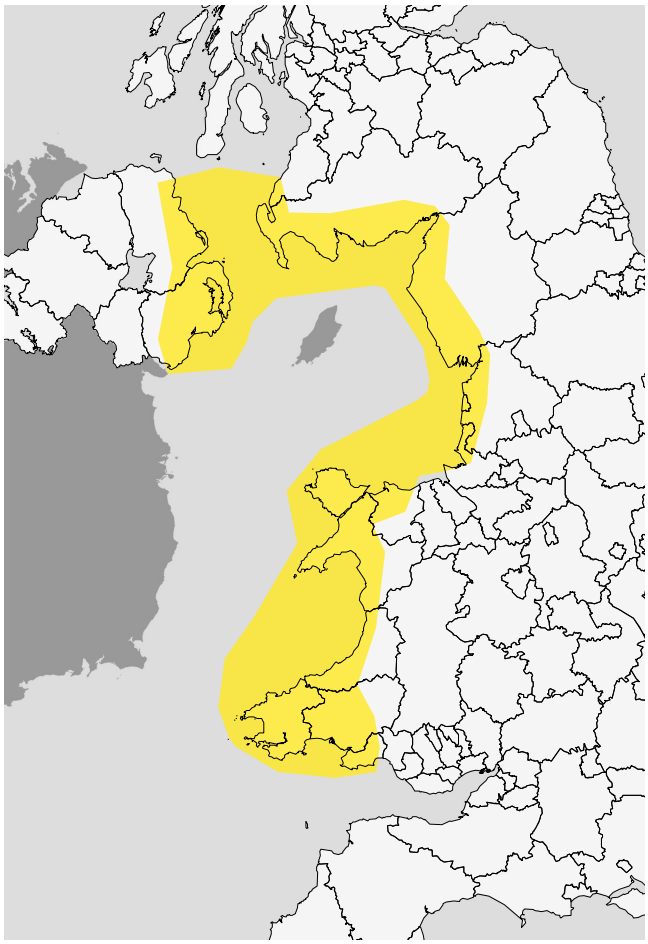
18:00 Wed 2 Nov 2022



A spell of very windy weather is expected to affect Irish Sea coastal areas on Wednesday.

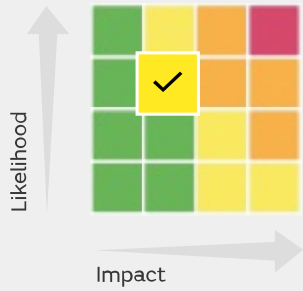
What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

A spell of very strong southerly or southwesterly winds will affect some western coastal areas during Wednesday. Gusts of 55-65 mph are expected, especially in exposed coastal locations, with some sudden strong gusts of wind possible at times.

Some further heavy rain is also likely during Wednesday, especially across parts of SW Scotland, Cumbria and W Wales.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
